Mr Appleton and the Black Tariff.

To the Editor of the N. Y. Evening Post

I presume you would consider me wanting in respect, or perhaps entirely silenced by your eloquence, should I permit your lucubrations on my defence of the Tariff of 1842 to pass without notice. However irksome the task, I have no. alternative.

In the first place, I am obliged to you for the publication of my letter, which was, I confess, written with no such expectation. That, at least, I consider gentlemanly I propose then to follow such of your remarks as seem to call

In your communication of Monday, the 25th alt, you quote a paragraph from the Boston Morning Post in reference to my statement of the profits of the Lowell Companies, as disingenuous, as it includes only the two years 1842 1843, (not ten years, as in your text) How disingenuous? Will you or the Morning Post tell me. I send you the original article in the D 1 v Advertiser of 9th of February, which I will thank you to publish and point out its disingendousness

It was an answer to Mr McDuffie's statement, that the Cotton Manufacturers are making 35 per cent, per annum. As to what it says of 'high salaries,'' and making more than they dare divide, it is such stuff as dreams are made of Because such crudities are thought unworthy of notice or contradiction, they furnish a miserable ground-work on which to found assettions of fact. There has been no reduction

On a critical examination, during the period ol greatest depression, it was found in all cases, I believe, that these concerns were ininaged with the greatest possible economy. As to dividends, the tendence always is to divide too much And I know of no case in which a dividend has been withheld through fear. In general, the reserves are barely sufficient to cover the wear and tear of machinery. In taking all exchange of labor against labor—and the free the Lawell Cotton Mills. I take the highest nos. while standard. There are no had investments there as you suggest. The stock of every Company is something over par, and is there any ather fair mode of estimating the profits of the business, but by an average of such concerns The nearest approach to truth in the piragraph of your oracle of the Morning Post, is the average profit of well conducted manufacturing esof work, and great durability, these Ploughs stand tablishments - which he states at about ten per cent, which is not far from the truth in some tew cases I find the average of all the Cetton Mills in Lowell for the last seven years between this support your allegation, that they are pocketing 30 per cent? Would any min go into and care, without a reasonable prospect of a return of nine or ten per cent per annum? In England the business of manufacturing is thought bad, when it will not give a return of ten per cent net profit

You next come to a more serious matter -You say, "no man whose personal interests are permit himself to be concerned in legislating Then no farmer should ten years Indeed' Camen Breast PINS, Gold Bracelets and Bracelet who know least, and care least, upon the sub-Clasps, Gold Lockets, and Miniature Settings. A ject on which they are acting To be consistent Niblo's. with this theory, no vote should be permitted the voter hoped or expected ofnce or emolament. And then the end " or personal advantage of any kind. The established rule is better which excludes a man hom voting on a question in which he his an intrest separate and distinct from the community

Purses, Fancy Work Boxes, Toye, &c then, and I think now, that I was promoting the Watches repaired, and Lever Watches made by interest of every individual in the United States, then, and I think now, that I was promoting the your commercial department, You will find yourselves amongst the number-and with your permission, I venture the opinion, that I was labries, grown in that market, with the quality then, and am now in as good a situition to form

In Eigiand for carre res the gist of our arguinadd vited to per cent of the capital, Tithat

ment, if there is any gist in it. You seem very familiar with Manchester price currents I refer you to that of Du Fay & Co. of 1st March, which no doubt, some of your Manchester friends can turnish you. It contains a table of comparative prices for every month in the year for eight years You will find it there set down, that the leading printing power loom cloth, 72 reed, in May and June 1842, sold at 4s 9d-in Feb. 1844, at 7s the piece of 28 yards—an advance of two cents on the grey cloth for a yard of calico, or upwards of 45 per cent. on an article of which the raw material constitutes ons-third of the value, against our ten per cent advance on a similar for notice, in the order in which you present article, or thirty one per cent. on an article of which the raw material constitutes two-thirds of the value. Thus this raw head and bloody hones vanishes into thin air. What shall we think of the writer? He either wrote apon a subject which he did not understand, or was guilty of a wilful misrepresentation. He may take either horn of the dilemma

We next come to an annunciation which de velopes a new principle of Lolilical economy it is stated that the farmers "love a market abroad for such of their produce as would be exchanged to: the goods imported under a moderate tariff" Spirit of Say and Ricardo what next? The full feeding work people of Lowell do not consume as much of our beef, flour and potatoes, as the starving operatives of Manchester would do if we would buy our calcoes of them. How do you break through the corn laws? But that does not matter-it would not be true, were no corn laws in existence

Does not every mechanic and manufacturer eat and drink as much of faimers' produce, it he does his work in America, as if he does it three thousand miles off? Then you eay, our ships lose the freight But is that a disadvantage? Is it not better for the respective consumers to make the exchange on the spot, rather than to compel each to carry his produce across the Atlantic? There lies the whole question in an economical point of view. It is an the manufacturers and mechanics on the other, will be sure to cause the exchange to be made on equal terms, dividing their peculiar advantages of their position in this country of cheap land Letween them.

The Bostonians, however, are of opinion that the protective system has increased our commerce immensely, whilst it has changed its direction The trade between Boston and New Orleans employs a greater amount of tonage than that between New York and Liverpool ever did Upwards of fifty square rigged vessels ch and 9 per cent per annum. But how does of the larger class have arrived at this port during the sixty days of February and March-one half of their cargoes, at least, consisting of the any trade or business, involving so much risk produce of the valley of the Ohio. This trade is the result of the protective system. How could we take their beet, pork, flour, lard and wool, if they did not take our calicoes, cottons, cabinet wares, shoes and other notions?

Your last art cle is a violent philippic, written certainly in your hest style-but it is an attack upon an obsciete idea, the oppression of the Turiff involved in a question before Congress, should on the consumers of our coarse cottons. This idea has been dead and burried for more than Its ghost occasionally makes its vote on a question that he thinks will benefit appearance, as in the present case, but not The assortment of Jeweliy is new, elegant and a griculture, no increhant for the benefit of com- amongst men of business. FOR PRESIDENT,

HENRY CLAY

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, GEORGE EVANS.

SUBJECT TO THE DECISION OF THE BALTIMORE WHIG CONVENTION.

The Whig National Convention, for the nomination of candidates for President and Vice President of the United States will meet in Baltimore on Wednesday the first day of May next. The Young Men's Whig National Convention of Ratification will meet on the following day Thursday the second of May.

to see first page.

The Gazette of yesterdar came out with a denial of a report which it says is in circulation that the editor and publisher of that paper voted for the whig candidate for Mayor at the recent municipal election. We have never heard any such report, nor should we think it of much consequence if we did. But the denial affords an opportunity for the Gazette to assure its friends abroad that in the tall election its party will not fail to vote the party ticket .---The editor of the Gazette probably entertains such an opinion, and cherishes such a hope.-We can assure the Gazette, however, that the late publisher of that paper will vote for the whig electors of President and Vice President, and has given his reasons for so doing to the. public through our columns. We do not think he is alone in this matter. We feel assured he of President is one of serious import as affecting several measures of vital importance to the business of the country, and the prosperity of the people. It in fact involves the issue between the conservative, fostering policy of the whigs in the administration of the government for the benefit of the people by protecting the udustry of the country, and the business and prosperity of the people, and making the American government the best in the world, and the people of the United States the most prosperous and happy of any in the world, and thus not only make it the most desirable of all others for our own people, but furnishing to the world the hest example to all the other governments, and people of the earth; and the destructive policy of locofocoism in maintaining government for itself without regard to the good it may do the people-the public policy of allowing the industry of the people to be overrun by foreign labor, sad the changing, cringing, miserable policy of administering the government for the success and supremacy of party leaders' instead of good to the country.

The men of sober thought and cool forecast in the Liberty party, see that between Henry Clay and Van Buren there is much in favor of the former. They see that the steady prosperity of the people depends much upon the measures advocated by Henry Clay, and the whig party. They see that throwing their votes in the Presidential campaign for an independent ticket cannot effect one jot or tittle the lact or effect of slavery, but may deteat those wise and fostering measures which they believe essential. Thus seeing, the most natural thing in the world it seems to us is, for them to vote the whig ticket, and thus help secure whig measures.

We should greatly prefer to announce the addition of five good citizens to the population o Bangor than the removal of one; but we must expect in the varying tastes and business of the times that men will occasionally change their residence. It is a matter of much satisfaction to us that in the changes that are taking place our city is gradually on the increase. We were led a day or two since to a train of thought on subjects connected with removals in the commumty as the proof sheet of our paper brought betore us a card announcing the removal of Albert G Jewett, Esq., Counsellor at Law from this city to the city of New York. Mr Jewett has been a citizen of Bangor from about the commencement of his practice in the law. His energy of character and ins untiring industry and sleepiess vigilance have given him a high runk among his associates at the bar in this county and great success in practice, particularly as an alvocate before junes - He is always in earnest | determined to make a vigorous effort to pay the in his causes, entering at once into the spirit of interest on the debt of that State, and to throw tiem, and never stoping for a display of the off repudiation and indifference.

he share of 1000 dellars was only worth 750, | elegancies of his profession as an art, but seizing with a strong grasp the pith and marrow, and pushing them forward to triumph.

While we have differed greatly from Mr Jewett in political opinion we cannot but know that fellow citizens. In losing him from our city we trust he will find ample scope for his professional skill in the wide sphere to which he has re

Mr John N. Bernard of Boston, a thorough Washingtonian, lectured upon the subject of Temperance at the City Hall in this city, on Monday evening. There was a good audience and his remarks were listened to with much interest. Mr Bernard is a poor man, has been a great sufferer on account of the evils of intemperance, but having seen and felt the folly of his course, resolved upon amendment, signed the pledge, and has thus, with the help of Heaven, redeemed himself. He is a skillful elocutionist and is now devoting his time and talents to the promotion of the temperance cause, and is dependent upon those with whom he may labor, for defraying his expenses and for the support of his family. It is unusual, we know, to allude to these matters, but we cannot think a reference to them, improper at this time. Mr B. intends lecturing in the several villages between this city and Portland, and we think the people will be interested in his labors both for the elegance with which he presents the subject and the vital importance of the subject itself. We recommend him to the attention of all.

Mr David Bugbee of this city, has recently published a neat little volume, it being a review of the two systems of Medical Practice pursued at the present day, together with a list of compounds and mixtures most commonly employed in the new, or Thomsonian practice: The work has been prepared by J. H. Robinson of Machias. This unpretending volume contains in a small compass a very good general view of the two systems as represented by authors upon each side. It is mainly useful, however, to the great mass of the people for its practical directions in compounding medicines used by Thomsonians, and in the instructions it gives for their use. Those who do not possess the medical works of Thomson or Mattson will find this a useful work, containing much instruction in convenient form at a low price.

The Bangor Gazette and our loving neighbor of the Democrat have attempted to make it appear that the Whigs did not obtain much of a victory at the recent Connecticut State election. We commend to their attention the following extract from the Norwich Connecticut News an out and out loco paper :--

" The result is, our State Ticket has been deleated by being exposed to the raking fire designed for the defeated candidate of 1840. The fact is evidently so, and, as we have before remarked, is now almost universally acknowledged to be so. We have scarcely conversed with a Democrat since the election who has not expressed himself to this effect; they say, and say, ought not to be alone. The approaching election truly "Mr Van Buren has been a dead weight upon our party; had his name been out of the ay we should have succeeded

Perhaps the Democrat can discover an 'omen n the cause here assigned, somewhat signifi cant and pointed. By the by this 'omen' suggests several others which the Democrat had better lay to heart, such as, the 'omen' of the election of an entire Whig delegation to Congress from Maryland; the 'omen' of the election of Morse in the Comet District-the 'omen' in the election of a Whig in the 13th district of Pennsylvania, the 'omen' of the defeat of Tammany Hall power in New York city-the 'omen' of the Whig gains and Whig triumphs in the towns in Western New York-the 'omen' of dissatisfaction and dismay of its party-the 'omen' of the union, courage, perseverance and whole heartedness with which the Whigs enter the contest-the 'omen' of the defeat of its party in forty. Are these not 'ominous' to its party as to the approaching campaign?

Several friends of Mr Bernard, interested in the subject of elocution, have obtained from him an assurance, that on Friday evening he will gratify the lovers of correct reading with an exhibition at the City Hall; admission to which has been fixed at twelve and a half cents. We think our people generally will be pleased with this exhibition.

TP We do not suppose our correspondent 'Philologus' will trouble himself to follow the editor of the Gazette in his attempt to discuss the critic instead of the criticism. Did the editor of the Gazette know who it was that wrote under the signiture of 'Philologus' he would perceive something eminently ludicrous in the application of his remarks, and perhaps learn that it is better to discuss a principle than a

Arrival of the Steamship Acadia--- Late from Europe---Decline in the Cotton Market---Death of the King of Sweden

The Acadia arrived at Boston on Sunday bringing Liverpool papers to the 4th inst.

The cotton market is dull, and reduced rates have been submitted to. The staple has declined from 1-8d to 1-4d per pound, the article being in limited request.

The most prominent, and as regards its results the most important parliamentary discussion of he last fortnight, perhaps of the session, has been Lord Ashley's amendment on Sir James Graham's Factory Bill, for limiting the hours of labor to TEN instead of twelve hours per daya proposition of such magnitude, that if carried, it would restrict, it is asserted, manufacturing products one sixth, involve a loss of little less than twenty millions sterling annually, and reduce the wages of the operatives in the same

Mr. O'Connell, who has been making a circuit of the principal towns of England, explaining his grievances, and the circumstances arising out of the late trial, was in Liverpool recently, where he addressed a densely packed meeting at the Ampitheatre. He has published another address to the people of Ireland, reproaching them for incendiary outrages committed, and recommending peace and tranquility.

The Emperor of Russia is making extensive preparations to finish his Circussian war the present season.

Latest accounts from New Zealand, give the particulars of another affray at Wairoa, originating in a land claim, between a party of armed settlers from Nelson, and a body of natives, in which some fifty lives were sacrificed.

The natives sought to avert the quarrel, but when pushed to extremities, displayed more than ordinary courage and skill. The British colonial government was about to adopt strong measures to prevent a recurrence of such scenes.

The Limerick Chronicle says that ne fire irms have been sold in Limerick during the last hree months, than for the last 13 years.

The whole country around Mount Lebanon appears to be again in open insurrection. The old feud between the Christians and the Druses seems to be at the bottom of the new outbreak, which will probably present a repetition of those sanguinary scenes that have so often nearly depopulated those regions.

Death of the King of Sweden.

His Majesty Charles John has ceased to exist. He died on the 8th instant, at four o'clock in the morning. His son and heir assumed forthwith the royal authority, under the style of Oscar the Second; and announced his intention of continning the government of Sweden and Norway in the footsteps of his late father.

The Eastern Argus says that the Charter Oak broke her piston rod, on her passage from that city to Bangor on Saturday. Mr. Gates, Steward of the Boat, immediately started from B. for Boston. He changed horses every ten miles, and arrived in Portland Sunday morning -when he chartered a loccomotive and left for Boston, for the purpose of getting her repairs made there. "The surprising effect produced by the genuine Dr. Taylor's Balsam of Liverwort, made at 375 Bowery, in consumptive cases, cannot fail exciting a deep and thrilling interest throughout the world. REDUCTION FOURFOLD IN PRI-CES-OR NOTHING.

N article that every family must consider indispensable, when they know its power and value and which has heretofore been sold too high to bring it to all classes, has now been reduced fourfold in price, with a view that rich and poor. high and low, and in fact every human being may enjoy its comforts; and all who get it shall have the price returned to them if they are not delighted with its use. We assert, without the possibility of contradiction, that all hurns and scalds, every external sore, old or fresh, and all external pains and aches, no matter where, shall be reduced to comfort by it in five minutes-saving life, limb or scar. No burn can be fatal if this is applied, unless the vitals are destroyed by the accident. It is truly magical to appearance, in its effects. Enquire for "Connel's Magical Pain Extractor," at Comstock & Co's., 21 Cortland street. Price 25 cents, or four times as much for 50 cents, and ten times as much for §1.
